

I wish that Telemarketing be banned. It is a nuisance to my family and me. The marketers call at all times day or night, week days or weekends. I think that the phone companies should be more responsible to their customers. Not double dipping.